(Hong Kong, July 11, 2022) The annual SummerFest will be held at the Central Harbourfront Event Space (CHES) from July 16 to September 18, spanning over two months. Covering 15,500 square meters in the core of Central, this large-scale outdoor programme provides about 30 activities related to the theme of this year - "Wild in the City". Admission is FREE so Hongkongers are welcome to enjoy a great summer at the harbourfront.

Returning for the sixth year, SummerFest attracts tens of thousands of participants each summer. In light of the improving epidemic situation, its organiser Central Venue Management (CVM), the exclusive operator and manager of CHES, is confident that the event will be attractive to the public and will restore some fun in life for young people and families alike.

For a taste of nature, look no further, because SummerFest puts the wild in the city. At the CHES, visitors can breathe in the fresh sea breeze, take in the sunset and starlight, and join in a diverse range of activities and performances, making it an oasis to be found in this concrete jungle.

Hong Kong Neon -- The Unfinished Business

For decades, the streets of Hong Kong lit up in clusters of overlapping yet one-of-a-kind neon signs have been the city's iconic night view. With the lights fading and its industry declining, the NGO Tetra Neon Exchange (TNX) which is committed to the conservation of this unique heritage, brings to SummerFest a series of preserved and somewhat restored dining outlet neon signs, plus various guided tours and talks, to encourage rediscovery of Hong Kong neon, i.e. its past, present, possible future and more. To lift the veil on the even lesser-known side of Hong Kong neon, restoration process will also be conducted on site.
